

A StudyCourse is an academic curriculum which contains several Classes. A User represents a student at the University, who might be either interested in looking for help. A Tutor is a User who is willing to help other Users, teaching some Classes of his StudyCourse. A User can look for Tutors, according to the classes he teaches, his grade in it, his fee and his bio.